DEBTOR'S FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS THIRTY-THREE (33), THIRTY-FIVE (35), THIRTY-SIX (36), AND THIRTY-SEVEN (37) SEEKING TO EXPUNGE AND/OR DISALLOW CERTAIN CLAIMS

TO THE HONORABLE MARTIN GLENN,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT:

Andrew Velez Construction, Inc. (the "Debtor"), by its attorneys Ortiz & Ortiz, L.L.P., hereby objects to the Proof of Claims numbered Thirty-Three (33), filed by New York City Partnership, Thirty-Five (35), filed by the New York State Department of Taxation, Thirty-Six (36), filed by FMB Corporation, and Thirty-Seven (37) filed by Cyan Contracting. In support thereof, the Debtor states as follows:

Background

1. The Debtor filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition on November 21, 2006.
2. By order of this Court September 28, 2007, was fixed as the last date to file claims against the estate.

OBJECTION TO LATE CLAIMS

Claim Number 36 - FMB Corp.

3. On November 6, 2007, FMB Corp filed a proof of claim asserting a general unsecured claim in the amount of $58,316.00. A copy of the claim is annexed hereto as Exhibit A. This claim was filed thirty-nine (39) days after the bar date.

4. FMB Corp was listed in Debtor's Amended Schedules filed on May 31, 2007, as a disputed claim. They had actual notice of the proceedings and were served with notice of all proceedings requiring such notice from May 2007 to the present, including the bar date notice.

Claim Number 35 - New York State Department of Taxation

5. On October 18, 2007, the New York State Department of Taxation filed a proof of claim asserting a priority claim in the amount of $1,000.00. A copy of the claim is annexed hereto as Exhibit B. This claim was filed twenty (20) days after the bar date.

6. The New York State Department of Taxation had actual knowledge of the bankruptcy proceedings as is evidenced by an additional proof of claim which they filed on May 24, 2007. The October 18, 2007, proof of claim is a new distinct claim and not listed as an amendment to the previous proof of claim filed in May 2007.

7. By this Objection, the Debtor seeks an order under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1), 105(a), 502(b), and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3007 disallowing and expunging the above listed claims against the Debtor as untimely.

OBJECTION TO DISPUTED CLAIMS

Claim Number 37 - Cyan Contracting Corporation

8. On February 22, 2008, Cyan Contracting Corporation ("Cyan") filed a proof of claim asserting a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,000,000.00. A copy of the claim is annexed hereto as Exhibit C. This claim was filed almost five (5) months after the bar date.

9. In June of 2001, Cyan entered into a contract with the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York to commence a construction project at the Queens Supreme Court. The Debtor was the construction manager for that project.

10. On September 14, 2007, Cyan filed a summons and complaint against The Dormitory Authority of the State of New York (“DASNY”) listing the Debtor as a Co-Defendant.

11. On December 11, 2007, upon receipt of the Summons and Complaint, Debtor contacted counsel for Cyan and notified them of the instant bankruptcy proceeding. A copy of the letter to Cyan’s counsel is annexed as Exhibit D. Cyan did not seek an order for relief from the automatic stay, or any other form of relief, permitting it to proceed against the debtor. The Summons and Complaint is based upon an series of events that occurred prior to the bankruptcy filing.

12. Cyan alleges in its complaint that it has suffered damages due to the actions of the Debtor as an agent of DASNY and as a separate entity. Cyan does not specify the amount a damages it is seeking against the Debtor in its complaint.

13. The Debtor denies the allegations as set forth in the Cyan complaint and believes that any damages allegedly suffered by Cyan were caused by the actions of other parties. As such the proof of claim filed by Cyan against the Debtor should be disallowed and expunged.

Claim Number 33 - New York City Partnership Housing Development

14. On September 28, 2007, the New York City Partnership Housing Development

(“NYCPHD”) filed a proof of claim asserting a general unsecured claim in the amount of $1,431,048.00. A copy of the claim is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

15. Prior to the bankruptcy filing, NYCPHD entered into a contract with Melrose Place Housing Corporation (“Melrose Place”), which provided that Melrose Place was to perform certain work, including the building of a retainer wall on the property located on Bryant and Longfellow Avenues, in Bronx County.

16. In 2006, NYCPHD filed a summons and complaint against Melrose Place naming the Debtor as its “doing business as” (d/b/a). NYCPHD alleged that it had suffered damages due to the actions of Melrose Place.

17. Melrose Place is a separate corporate entity from the debtor, as is demonstrated by the New York State Department of State Division of Corporation Entity Information documents attached hereto as Exhibit F.

18. On March 29, 2007, upon receipt of the Summons and Complaint, Debtor contacted counsel for NYCPHD and notified them of the instant bankruptcy proceeding. A copy of the letter sent by the debtor to NYCPHD is annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

19. On May 25, 2007, NYCPHD continued its action against Melrose Place and filed a motion for default judgment. The motion was granted as to liability only on June 26, 2007. A hearing to determine damages was held on September 18, 2007, at which time NYCPHD was awarded a judgment against Melrose Place for $1,431,048 plus interest. This judgment is the basis for their claim against the Debtor.

20. The Debtor disputes the claim submitted by NYCPHD on the grounds that the judgment awarded is against Melrose Place and not the Debtor. Melrose Place is a separate corporate entity and does not conduct business under the name “Andrew Velez Construction, Inc.” Moreover, any judgment obtained against the debtor was obtained in knowing violation of the automatic stay provision of the Bankruptcy Code, set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 362. Therefore, the proof of claim filed by NYCPHD against the Debtor should be disallowed and expunged.

21. For the reasons stated above, the Debtor seeks an order under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1), 105(a), 502(b), and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3007 disallowing and expunging the Proof of Claims numbered thirty-three (33), thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) against the Debtor.

22. The Debtor further contends that Cyan’s Proof of Claim numbered thirty-seven does not substantiate the basis for its claim against the Debtor. Therefore, unless the claim is amended to provide further documentation of the basis for asserting the amount claimed, the claim should be disallowed and expunged.

Notice

23. The Debtor served this objection on above-stated Creditors and the U.S. Trustee. It is respectfully submitted that such notice is adequate.

Reservation of Rights

24. The Debtor reserves the right, if necessary, to amend, modify, or supplement the objections raised herein, or raise additional objections, based upon information discovered during the claims resolution process.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of an order disallowing and/or expunging the claims, as requested above, and granting any further relief deemed just.

Proof of Claim

Debtor: Andrew Velez Construction, Inc.
Creditor: Cyan Contracting Corporation
350 Paddock Way
Mattituck, New York 11952
Case #: 06-12765, SDNY, Chapter 11

Creditor Cyan Contracting Corporation's ("Cyan's") claim results from debtor Andrew Velez Construction, Inc.'s ("Velez") negligence and breach of contract as construction manager for the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York ("DASNY") on a project known as the Queens Supreme Court - Contract 81052/CR200.

Cyan was one of a number of prime contractors on the Queens Supreme Court project. Cyan performed fire suppression work, such as sprinkler system installation under a contract with DASNY. Velez's job, among other things, was to coordinate the various trades such as the sprinkler contractor, the electrical contractor, the mechanical contractor, and the general trades contractor. Cyan asserts that Velez was negligent in the performance of its duties. Cyan also claims that Cyan was a third-party beneficiary of the contract between Velez and DASNY and that Velez breached its obligations to Cyan.

Because of the nature of Cyan's claims against Velez, there are no documents directly supporting the claim.

A more detailed explanation of the claim follows:

Failure of the Coordination Drawing Process: The normal coordination drawing process, whereby the trades would coordinate utility pathways and other issues, was a failure. Cyan particularly needed to coordinate its work with the sheet-metal and HVAC work, but this did not occur because the coordination drawings were never made available. Cyan had to manufacture work at the site as opposed to more efficiently pre-fabricating its work. In addition, coordination issues had to be resolved in the field as opposed to more efficiently planning things ahead so that work could progress without interruption.

Failure to provide access to the site: Velez failed to have furniture removed from the court's ante and jury rooms, thereby hindering Cyan's progress. Velez failed to make the site available in the evening and night and on the weekends as required under the contract.

Trade stacking: Velez's scheduling led to multiple trades working in the same location at the same time in an inefficient manner.

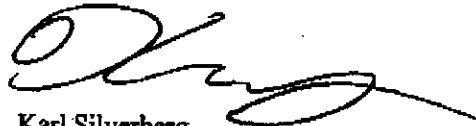

Delivery Schedule: Velez only allowed deliveries between 6 a.m. and 9 a.m., requiring additional overtime costs.

Elevators: Velez's failure to procure elevators caused delays to Cyan.

Delay: Velez's personnel lacked experience to properly manage project.

Amount of Claim against Velez for Queens Supreme Court: $1,000,000

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

DEFINITIONS*Debtor

The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set, or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began; in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim.)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)*Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice.

Information about Creditor:

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form.

1. Basis for Claim:

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in the last four digits of your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3. Court Judgments:

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment.

4. Classification of Claim:*Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, above).

Unsecured Priority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above). A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

Unsecured Nonpriority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured nonpriority claim, sometimes referred to as a "general unsecured claim." (See DEFINITIONS, above.) If your claim is partly secured and partly unsecured, state here the amount that is unsecured. If part of your claim is entitled to priority, state here the amount not entitled to priority.

5. Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed:

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges.

6. Credits:

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

7. Supporting Documents:

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available.

Re: NYC Partnership Housing Develop.
vs. Melrose Place Housing Corp.
Index No. 06-603419

Dear Mr. Gilbert:

My firm filed a voluntary chapter 11 bankruptcy petition on behalf of Andrew Velez Organization, Inc. ("Velez"), on November 22, 2006, in the Southern District of New York. We received a copy of the Summons and Complaint filed against them. Please cease all activity against Velez and abide by the terms of 11 U.S.C. §362.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Norma E. Ortiz
